

2800 Post Oak Blvd.
57th Floor
Houston, TX 77056
713.817.1504
svida@rmwbh.com

Sarah M. Vida- Shareholder

Sarah Vida is a Shareholder at RMWBH Law and practices in the firm's litigation section. She joins the firm with general civil litigation experience from a Fort Bend County boutique law firm and from a downtown Dallas law firm. Sarah attended Baylor Law School where she learned to zealously advocate for her clients and was trained in the intricacies of litigation. During her law school education, Sarah clerked for the Honorable Jaclanel McFarland in the 133rd Judicial District Court of Harris County.

Sarah brings compassion and skill to her representation of clients. Sarah is knowledgeable about all stages of litigation, including pleadings, discovery, dispositive and pre-trial motions, and trial. Sarah has prepared and argued various motions in Texas courts.

Sarah is an active member of the Houston community, participating in the local half-marathons and marathons.

Practice Areas

Commercial Litigation
Fiduciary Litigation
Insurance Defense

Education

Baylor Law School, Juris Doctor, 2011
University of Texas, Bachelor of Arts, 2007

Affiliations

State Bar of Texas
Texas Young Lawyers Association
Houston Baylor Lawyer Network, Steering Committee

Bar Admissions

State Bar of Texas