Braden Burgess - Associate

Braden Burgess is an Associate in the Corporate Section of RMWBH. He assists clients with matters relating to entity formation, corporate governance, and mergers and acquisitions. In his practice, he works with clients on a wide array of business agreements including limited liability company agreements, partnership agreements, shareholder agreements, equity purchase agreements, and asset purchase agreements.

Braden's past roles and experience have solidified and honed his document-drafting skills. And because Braden's passion is helping clients achieve their best possible business outcomes, he firmly believes in the client experience. Braden not only provides timely service, but more importantly, he thoroughly explains the relevant legal issues in layperson's terms for a seamless interaction. Braden has always believed in transparency. Providing the "how" and "why" to his clients is just one way he ensures his clients are an integral part of the process.

Braden graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in history and political science from the University of Michigan in 2013. He earned his Juris Doctor degree from the University of Houston Law Center in 2018.
